HAYS ANSWERS COX'S CHARGES

Refutes Statements Made by Nominee Relative to the Truthfulness of His Testimony

SPEAKS OF QUOTAS

Assertions Are Made With the Same Reckless Irresponsibility as His Claims of $15,000,000

New York, Sept. 5.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, issued a statement here today in reply to Governor Cox's attack on the truthfulness of his testimony before the senate committee investigating campaign contributions.

According to the public report Governor Cox yesterday made the following accusation against me personally:

"I charge that Will H. Hays perpetrated a deliberate falsehood when he said, under oath, that there were no quotas."

"In my written statement read to the senate committee on August 30 in Chicago, I said:

"Tentative quotas were fixed by the treasurer's office, all tentative and rather as a goal, always high, or, of course, for the particular state to drive at, and changing constantly."

"At different periods different quotas have been suggested by the treasurer's office as tentative goals in different states and the state committees themselves have fixed different quotas. These, as above suggested, are changing constantly and always, of course, were made very much higher than was either necessary or anticipated. The fact is, the quotas meant little. Furthermore, whatever may have been suggested as quotas by over-zealous solicitors in their enthusiasm in different localities, the fact remains that a certain amount was believed necessary and the budget above referred to was indicated therefor, which is $3,079,037.20 for the use of the national committee. When this amount was fixed as the budget, it became the sum fixed for the treasurer to reach, and the purpose became definite. The facts at all times remain that the treasurer is striving to collect enough and no more than enough to meet the necessary expenses, estimated to be something in excess of $3,000,000."

"These are the facts. Let the public judge as to the truth or falsity of Governor Cox's accusations. It has the same reckless irresponsibility as his claims of $15,000,000. Further comment on the reliability of his statement is unnecessary."

Claims "Deliberate Falsehood"

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 5.—The direct charge that Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, had "deliberately perpetrated a falsehood under oath," at Chicago in denying statements regarding a campaign quota list, was made yesterday by Governor Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, in his address here at the state fair grounds.

"I charge that there is a quota," said Governor Cox, referring to the senate committee's investigation. "and I charge that Mr. Hays deliberately perpetrated a falsehood under oath when he said there was not a quota."

Governor Cox also declared that a conference scheduled today at Marion, Mo. between Senator Harding, the Republican candidate, and members of the Republican ways and means committee, had been called off by exchange, he, Governor Cox, "had exposed the plot to buy the presidency."

The Governor's declaration came as the climax of his fair grounds speech in a clamor which made them almost indistinguishable except to those nearby.

The speech was interrupted by cries from parts of the crowd which could not hear the candidate. The Governor was forced to cut his speech short on the brief reference to Mr. Hays and the Marion conference. The interruptions began while the speaker was discussing the League of Nations.

The Governor proceeded hastily despite the babel of the crowd, some of which yelled to the Governor to approach nearer, while others shouted demands for opening of the fair grounds entertainment program, standing while the Governor was speaking.

Hammers at G. O. P. Fund.

Starting from Chicago in the morning Governor Cox made his first speech at Kenosha, following that with a rear platform address at Racine.

In this city five addresses were on the Governor's schedule, the last at 10 o'clock tonight prior to his return to Chicago where he expects to pass Sunday. It was the first day of the Wisconsin state fair.

The Governor's set speeches were at the state fair today and at Plankinton Hill tonight.

Hays concerning alleged quotas in the "official bulletin" of the Republican treasurer and concluded with this observation: "If you told the truth on the stand under oath, then Mr. Upham (Republican national treasurer) in his official capacity misrepresented you. This contradictory circumstance shows that you are either a perjurer or Mr. Upham is a falsifier. If the latter be true, then it is your duty to discharge him as treasurer. If you do not do so, then the American people can draw their own conclusion."

Cox Offers Some "Leads."

Chicago, Sept. 5.—While spending Sunday here on his western tour, Governor Cox interested himself in the senate committee investigation of Republican campaign funds and tonight gave out a statement intended to furnish the committee with the leads to substantiate his charge that a $15,000,000 fund is being raised by the Republican National Committee to buy the presidency.

In his statement, made after conferences with E. H. Moore of Youngstown, Ohio, his peace-convention manager and personal representative at the committee hearings, and other party leaders, Governor Cox charged that attempts had been made to levy a quota of $50,000 on Chicago coal dealers and suggested the names of persons whom the committee might call to substantiate his charge.

"Inasmuch as I could not stay to furnish the information," the Governor said, "I thought I would leave a few leads for the committee."

The Governor's statement was in the form of a question directed to Chairman Will H. Hays, of the Republican National Committee, in which he asks Mr. Hays "whether he knows anything of a quota or assessment on Chicago coal men for $50,000 at a meeting here early in the summer. At this meeting, announcement of the quota was made by J. K. Dering and supplemented by C. M. Moderer."

"If the circumstance is not fresh in Mr. Hays' mind, he might call in George McCort, E. E. Fyke, Robert H. Zoller, James Forrester of DuQuoin, Ill., or Rice Miller of Hillsboro, Ill."

The Governor stated that "some Democrats were in the meeting and they demurred." He asserted "that is just one group that was assessed. I thought I would just leave a lead with the committee."

Says Harding Won't Wholly and Finally Reject League

Marion, Sept. 5.—After an extended conference today with Senator Harding, former Attorney General Wickersham issued a statement declaring the Republican nominee would not "wholly and finally reject the league," but would take the lead in revising the covenant and purging it into practical operation.

The Senator recognizes, Mr. Wickersham added, that the league is so interwoven with the fortunes of Europe that its unobjectionable features must be preserved to stabilize European peace.

From Senator Harding himself there was no expression on the subject, but it was indicated that in the near future he might make a public statement detailing his precise stand with regard to acceptance of any portion of the covenant as it was written. It was said that in his talk with the former attorney general, the whole subject was discussed minutely and that the views expressed by the nominee met with Mr. Wickersham's full approval.

Senator Harding not only declined to make any comment on the Wickersham statement, but also refrained from discussing the categorical questions about the league which were addressed to him by Governor Cox last night in his Milwaukee speech. The Republican nominee said he proposed to maintain his policy of not engaging in a debate with his opponent and would express his views in his own way as occasion offered.

Another of the candidate's callers today was Oscar Durante, editor of "L'Italia," Chicago's Italian daily. He talked with the Senator about the Fiume question, and said afterwards he was satisfied Mr. Harding "would accord to Italian interests the fair and friendly treatment that has been denied under Wilson."

U. S. SWIMMERS MAKE CLEAN SWEEP OF PARIS OLYMPIC

Paris, Sept. 5.—The American athletes made a clean sweep in the water contests of the "Paris Olympic" today and incidentally. Duke Kahanamoku broke the world's record for the 100-meter swim, covering the distance in one minute flat.

Norman Roth of Chicago won the 400 meters in five minutes, 57 and 4/5 seconds. P. Keadala of Honolulu was second.

Miss Bletchley ran away with the 200-meter match against Mile. Warts, the French woman being more than 30 yards behind at the end.

Kahanamoku's match against Rouilly, the French champion, was a one-sided affair, the Hawaiian winning in record time and the Frenchman finishing eight seconds behind.

BIG LIST ON SUSQUEHANNA.

Berlin, Sept. 5.—The American steamer Susquehanna, the first passenger liner to leave Bremen since the war, sailed Saturday carrying 2,000 passengers. The Susquehanna also had on board the mails and a mixed cargo of freight.

COAST-TO-COAST AIR MAIL RUN STARTS WEDNESDAY

Washington, Sept. 5.—Air mail service between New York and San Francisco will be inaugurated by the postoffice department Wednesday, the first plane leaving each terminal at 5:30 a. m. local time.

Complete plans and schedules for the coast-to-coast service, announced today by the department, show that the mail planes from New York to San Francisco are expected to make the trip in 56 and one-half hours elapsed time.

Transportation

NEARLY NORMAL

International President Arrives to Assume Charge of B. R. T. Strike, Entering Second Week

New York, Sept. 5.—With the strike on the Brooklyn Rapid Transit system entering its second week today, street car, subway and elevated service reached a stage only a little short of normal, according to reports of inspectors of the Public Service Commission. On surface lines, the commission's inspectors reported at noon there was 423 cars in operation on 27 different routes. In the elevated and subway service, there were 157 trains made up of 500 cars, in operation.

W. D. Mahon of Detroit, International president of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America, arrived here today and assumed charge of the strike. After a conference with International Vice President P. J. Shea, and other strike leaders, he announced that his first action would be to call on Mayor Hylan tomorrow.

"It is most difficult for one to assume charge of an affair of this kind," he said, "especially after much bitterness has been engendered by action and words spoken by those who do not understand the circumstances or policies of our association. The creation of this condition was not with my consent or of my making. Therefore, it is my hope that after the matter has been fully gone over, we may be able to reach an honorable and satisfactory adjustment."

Two men were killed and seven others injured today in an automobile accident, an indirect result of the strike. The accident occurred when a strike emergency bus, carrying passengers up Broadway in Brooklyn, skidded in avoiding another car and ran over the sidewalk, crashing into a store front. The dead are Peter Schneller and William Beyer, both of Brooklyn. The driver of the bus, Alvaro Rubin of Flint, Mich., was arrested on a charge of homicide.

Frederick Friedman, 17 years old, of Coney Island, died today in a hospital from a fractured skull received when an elevated train was stalled last Thursday by strike sympathizers. He was struck on the head by a flying brick. Four striking B. R. T. guards were arrested today and charged with homicide in connection with Friedman's death.

ANTI-SUFFRAGISTS LAYING THEIR PLANS

Have Four Methods By Which They Hope to Bring About Supreme Court Decision Soon

Washington, Sept. 5.—Four methods to be used by the anti-suffragists to bring about a decision by the supreme court before the November election on the legality of ratification of the federal suffrage amendment were outlined in a statement issued here tonight by the American Constitutional league.

The anti-suffragists, according to the statement, propose, first, to appeal pending litigation as to Tennessee's ratification to the Tennessee supreme court, which meets September 20. An attempt will be made to have the case appealed or certified from the Tennessee court to the supreme court.

The second method outlined is to bring injunction and mandamus proceedings against election officials to keep women from voting and thereby to cause suffragists themselves to help expedite the case speedily to the highest court.

The third proposal is to have an attorney general of one of the 12 states which have not ratified refuse to carry the case to the supreme court at once on an original jurisdiction in the name of a sovereign state.

Should these methods fail, anti-suffragists, according to the league, propose to carry to the supreme court an appeal from the District of Columbia supreme court's dismissal of an injunction to restrain Secretary of State Coby from proclaiming the suffrage amendment ratified.

BROOKLYN EDUCATOR DIES.

Middlebury, Vt., Sept. 5.—Samuel Sheldon, professor of physics and electrical engineering at the Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn, N. Y., died here last night. He was born in Middlebury 53 years ago, was a graduate of Middlebury college, and had been spending a vacation here.

NO SYMPATHY DUE MACSWINEY

Instead, It Should Go to Bereaved Families of Murdered Irish Policemen, Bomar Law Says

GOVERNMENT FIRM

Mayor Was Member of Republican Army, Which "Asks No Mercy, and Makes No Compromise"

London, Sept. 5.—Replying to the labor party's appeal in favor of Lord Mayor MacSwiney's release, Mr. Bomar Law, the government leader, addressed a long letter, dated Downing street today, to the effect that the government's position was made clear in the premier's statement of August 26, to which there was little to add.

Mr. Bomar Law proceeds to state that MacSwiney was one of the leaders of the Irish Republican army, which declared itself at war with the forces of the crown, and, according to his own written words in one of the seditious documents for which he was arrested, he and his followers had determined to pursue their own ends, "asking no mercy and making no compromise."

"To release such prisoners," asserts Mr. Bomar Law, "would be nothing short of a betrayal of loyal officers in whose devotion to duty the fabric of social order in Ireland rests."

Since MacSwiney's arrest, it is pointed out in the letter, 15 officers have been done to death without chance of defending themselves.

"Surely," continues the letter, "the sympathy extended to the lord mayor, whose condition is due to his own deliberate act, is due rather to the bereaved widows and families of the murdered Irish policemen."

Mr. Bomar Law declares in conclusion that the government cannot take a course involving the complete breakdown of the machinery of law and government, and that if the lord mayor dies in prison the responsibility will rest in some degree upon those who by their repeated appeals have encouraged the belief that the government would prove insincere in its determination.

MacSwiney Still Lives Though He Is Very Weak

London, Sept. 5.—Terence MacSwiney, mayor of Cork, entered the twenty-fourth day of his hunger strike today after a fairly restful night. His brother, Sean MacSwiney, remains at the bed side all night. Father Dominic private chaplain to the mayor, administered the sacrament this morning. A mass for the release or happy death of the prisoner was said in the Roman Catholic church in Maiden Lane.

According to the news dispatch, Father Dennis Mathieu, benedictine priest of French origin, who has resided in England for 40 years and officiated at MacSwiney's marriage, brought him some water from Lourdes yesterday. The mayor, however, was too weak to see his visitor.

Tonight the mayor's condition was unchanged. He was a trifle brighter toward noon, but his wife, who spent the afternoon with him reported this evening he was again in pain and suffering from depression.

New York, Sept. 5.—News of the death of Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, was momentarily expected today by Peter MacSwiney, brother of the prisoner and a group of friends who gathered at his home.

"I believe this is the last," Peter said. "I have been anxiously waiting all day for the news of his death. I guess Terence cannot last much longer. I hope he is not suffering."

Prayers were said for MacSwiney's release in many New York churches today.

Lucerne, Switzerland, Sept. 5.—Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain has replied in the negative to the message of Mayor Hylan of New York city, urging the premier to release Mayor MacSwiney of Cork from prison. The premier in his reply, dispatched yesterday, stated politely, but firmly that he could not interfere with the court of justice and law.

Fast 26 Days.

Belfast, Sept. 5.—The seven hunger strikers in the court jail this afternoon entered the 26th day of their abstinence from food, having subsisted on water for the entire period. The condition of one of the prisoners, Michael O'Reilly, is critical, and he is unable to speak to visitors. The period these men have gone without food is a record for Irish political prisoners. The longest previous hunger strike occurred in England last April and lasted 23 days.

DOUGHERTY TO REFEREE.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Sept. 5.—Tim Dougherty of Philadelphia was agreed upon early today as referee of the Smith-Dempsey fight to be staged here tomorrow. Chairman Bigger, of the state boxing commission, consented to issue a referee's license to Dougherty only after Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, threatened to call off the fight.

ARREST AUTO SPEEDER; FIND LOTS OF WHISKEY

Harmon, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Twenty cases of whiskey, valued at $4,000, were confiscated by state troopers today, when they arrested Harry Mittermyer of Dunkirk for speeding. Searching the touring car, the troopers say they found the liquor, which they allege Mittermyer was transporting from New York to Buffalo. He was charged with transporting liquor without a permit in addition to the speeding charge.

This is the sixth liquor confiscation the troopers have made here in the past six weeks.

SUFFRAGE UPSETS MAINE POLITICS

Roosevelt, Democratic Candidate, Finds Situation Hard to Estimate

Boston, Sept. 5.—The enfranchisement of women "has caused extreme confusion in Maine," where state officials will be elected on September 13, according to Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for vice president, who passed through this city today on his way to New York city after campaigning in that state.

"On my return from three days in Maine," Mr. Roosevelt said, in a statement, "I find it impossible to make any estimate of the situation. The passage of the nineteenth amendment, giving women the vote has caused extreme confusion, not only in the country districts, but in the cities in Maine. Not one has any idea as to the size of the women's registration, let alone the size of the actual vote."

Mr. Roosevelt said on September 13, I feel very strongly that if the women's votes in Maine could be polled a majority of them would favor the Democratic ticket. They show the same tendency to cast their ballot in favor of a definite and permanent peace, as they do in other sections of the country.

"I did, however, run across more loose campaign talk in Maine than anywhere so far. For instance, the Republicans are going around from house to house circulating the story that Canadian troops are about to be sent to fight in Poland, under the League of Nations. This is simply an example of the straits to which the opposition is driven for campaign material."

HERE TO CELEBRATE PILGRIMS' LANDING

Party Arrives From England For Three-Day Fete, Beginning September 26

New York, Sept. 5.—The delegation representing the British branch of the Fulgraze institution and the Anglo-American society which arrive in New York about September 18-19 for the tercentennial celebration of the Pilgrims landing and the first American legislative assembly at Jamestown, will be headed by Lord Rathmore, an Irish peer, it was announced here today.

The visitors will be entertained in Albany and Utica on September 21, and the next day will visit the state agricultural school at Morrisville and attend a dinner in Syracuse. The day after they will be guests of Syracuse university leaving in the afternoon for Buffalo where they will be guests of the city. After visiting Niagara Falls, they will return to New York, September 26, for a three-day celebration.

On October 2, the party will go to Washington and will make the trip on the President's yacht to the Washington home at Mr. Vernon. In Washington they will be the guests of Secretary Daniels.

FRENCH PRAISED FOR CARE OF U. S. SOLDIERS' GRAVES

New York, Sept. 5.—The French people were highly praised for the care they have taken of American graves by William P. Larkin, supreme director of the Knights of Columbus, who arrived here from Europe today on the steamship La France. Mortimer L. Schiff, banker, and Mrs. Cyril Hatch, a daughter of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt Sr., also were among the passengers.

Mr. Larkin declared that if the relatives of the 27,600 American buried in the cemetery at Romagne could see the care bestowed on the graves they would not want their dead disturbed. He said France is thinking only of peace and getting back to normal.

PHONE TO EVERY EIGHT PEOPLE

Washington, Sept. 5.—One individual in every eight in the United States has a telephone, according to reports from the telephone companies to the interstate commerce commission. They place the total number of phones at $357,170, an increase of 622,256 over last year.

The various companies received operating revenues aggregating $155,264,000. Operating expenses are listed at $115,234,000.

NEW ENGLAND HAS LIVELY CONTESTS

Coolidge's Retirement From State Office Results in Much Competition for Governorship

Boston, Sept. 5.—The nomination of Governor Calvin Coolidge for the vice presidency has resulted in a lively contest for places on the Republican state ticket, which will be chosen at the Massachusetts primaries on Tuesday. On the Democratic state ticket, two candidates are seeking the gubernatorial nomination, but the other positions are uncontested. For congressional nominations, there is sharp competition in several districts in both parties. No United States senator is being elected in this state this fall.

Women will vote in the primaries for the first time. In the cities alone, more than 130,000 have registered. Massachusetts, the last of the states to hold annual elections, will do so this year for the last time. Hereafter, elections will be held biennially so that the candidates elected in November next will hold office for two years.

For the Democratic nomination for governor, the candidates are Richard H. Long of Framingham and John J. Walsh of Boston.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 5.—New Hampshire men and women, the latter for the first time, will vote at the primaries on Tuesday next for Republican and Democratic candidates for United States senator, congress and governor. Although a spirited campaign has been waged by the three candidates for the Republican nomination for governor, chief interest has been aroused by the efforts of Huntley N. Spaulding, former state food administrator, to defeat Senator George H. Moses for re-nomination.

The Republican candidates for governor are Albert O. Brown, chairman of the State Tax commission; Winsor H. Goodnow, a member of the governor's council, and State Senator Arthur P. Morrill.

Albert W. Moore, prominent in Democratic state politics for many years, occupies the unusual position of being a candidate for both senator and governor on the Democratic ticket, on a wet platform, but his campaign has been without the support of the organization.

Charles E. Tilton also has the support of the regular organization for nomination for governor.

LITHUANIANS ATTACK POLES

Negotiations Regarding Future Relations of Two Countries Are Broken Off.

Warsaw, Sept. 5.—An attack on Polish forces by the Lithuanians with machine guns and artillery in the region of Sejny, 35 miles northwest of Grodno, is announced in Polish reports from the northern front.

It is also announced that the negotiations regarding the frontier and the future relations of Poland and Lithuania have been broken off and that the Polish delegates are returning to Warsaw.

Paris, Sept. 5.—Lithuanian forces have occupied the town of Sejny, it was reported in advices to the French foreign office today. The foreign office explains that the dispute between the Poles and Lithuanians is an incident arising from the facts that the recent peace treaty between the Moscow and Lithuanian governments is in conflict as regards national boundaries laid down for Poland by the Allies when they tentatively defined the Polish frontier last December.

CHARGE GAMBLERS HAD "FIXED" LEAGUE GAME

Chicago, Sept. 5.—The Chicago chapter of the Baseball Writers' association tonight prepared to investigate charges that players had been "fixed" so that the Philadelphia Nationals would win last Tuesday's game with the Chicago club and that gamblers won thousands of dollars as a result of Philadelphia's victory.

The entire membership of the chapter was appointed a committee of the whole by I. E. Sanborn, president, after he had received a letter from William Veck, president of the Chicago club, specifically asking that the baseball writers take up the investigation. Sam Hall, sports editor of the Herald and Examiner, was appointed chairman of the committee.

GERMANY ASKS POSTPONEMENT

Geneva, Sept. 5.—Germany has asked the Allies to postpone the reparations conference arranged at Spa to be conducted in Geneva beginning September 24, explaining that the presence of the same financial experts will be necessary both in Geneva and at the financial conference in Brussels which meets the same day.

APOLOGIZES FOR INTUITION

Berlin, Sept. 5.—Dr. Walter Simons, the foreign minister, apologized to the League of Nations for the Prussian military, called at the French embassy today and expressed the government's apology for the recent incident at Breslau, during which a mob attacked the French ambassador.

DEMPSEY - MISKE FRAY ON TODAY

All-Night Wrangle Over Selection of a Referee Finally Settled

DOUGHERTY IS CHOICE

Champion Overwhelming Favorite in the Betting, But Miske Has Many Admirers

Bulletins on the Dempsey-Miske championship fight will be received, round by round, by The Star tonight, and will be posted. The bulletins probably will commence arriving at about 8 p. m.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Sept. 5.—After an all-night wrangle over choice of a referee, calm settled today over the training camp of Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, and Billy Miske of St. Paul, challenger, who meet here tomorrow afternoon in a scheduled ten round championship contest.

James Dougherty of Philadelphia for whom Dempsey's manager, Jack Kearns, has fought for days, finally was agreed upon by the third man in the ring. But this was only after Kearns had issued an ultimatum that he would call off the match and take Dempsey out of town if Dougherty were not selected. Thompson Bigger, chairman of the Michigan boxing commission, consented at the last minute to give Dougherty a referee's license.

Al Day Was Bigger's Choice.

Al A. Day, a Detroit referee, was Bigger's choice, whom he named as referee at a midnight conference after Kearns had refused to consider any of ten other ring candidates. When Kearns was advised of this, he informed Promoter Floyd Fitzsimmons that Dempsey would not go into the ring. Kearns revealed that he had an agreement with Fitzsimmons when the match was made that Dougherty was to be referee. He declared that he would not consent to Day because he had never seen him officiate. When the match was in danger of being cancelled, Chairman Bigger, Promoter Fitzsimmons, and the others interested, had a final conference at daylight, at which they agreed to withdraw in favor of Dougherty.

Although Dempsey was an overwhelming favorite in the betting, Miske had hundreds of admirers willing to wager that he would be on his feet at the end of the tenth round.

The challenger will go into the ring weighing about 190 pounds—10 pounds heavier than when he fought Dempsey in his two previous engagements two years ago. His admirers are impressed with the fact that he is the only fighter who has faced Dempsey for ten rounds without being knocked out.

Dempsey's most formidable fighting assets are his punching power and speed. Miske is aggressive, but has been rated as of the plodding rather than the light-footed type of ring general, and his punching power has not gained the fame of a championship wallop.

The match tomorrow will be Dempsey's first fight since he conquered Jess Willard in the third round of their battle at Toledo, Ohio, 14 months ago. It will be Miske's second contest within the same period, as he did not box before for a year because of a mysterious ailment to his spine.

How They Stand.

Dempsey was upset because of the wrangle over the referee last night and did not work today. Miske, however, responded to the appeals of a crowd and went through some light exercises.

Statistics on Dempsey and Miske follow:

Jack Dempsey	Billy Miske
Age	35
Weight	193 lb
Height	5 ft. 1 in
Reach	71 inches
Chest	38 inches
Chest Expansion	44 inches
Neck	17 1/2 inches
Shoulders	16 1/2 inches
Waist	33 inches
Sleeves	15 1/2 inches
Forearm	13 1/2 inches
Wrist	7 1/2 inches
Thigh	21 1/2 inches
Calf	16 1/2 inches
Ankle	11 inches

Ready to Battle Carpenters.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Sept. 5.—Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, declared tonight that George Carpentier can have a fight with Dempsey "any time he wants it." Carpentier called yesterday from France for New York.

"I shall meet Carpentier when he lands in New York next week," Kearns said. "Dempsey is in perfect condition and ready to fight at any time. All Carpentier has to do is name the date—everybody and time he wants it."

Dempsey has one fight definitely scheduled after tomorrow's battle with Billy Miske. He means George Carpentier in Boston September 17.

OVERSEAS LAW IS ENFORCED

Boston, Sept. 5.—Fifty-one arrests were made under the liquor law here tonight in Boston. The arrests were made by the military and police, who stopped all motor cars.

LETTER FROM MRS. BRUCE

Tells Remarkable Story of Sickness and Recovery.

Brooksville, Ind.—When I was a young girl I clerked in my father's store and lifted heavy boxes which caused displacement and I suffered greatly. I was married at the age of 18 and went to a doctor about my trouble and he said if I had a child I would be all right. After three years twins came to us and I did get all right but three years later a baby boy came and I was troubled again. I could scarcely do any work at all and suffered for four years. A neighbor told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it for a year or more. Now I have a baby girl and do not have any female trouble. You can do anything you like with my letter to help others.—Mrs. J. M. Bruce, R. F. D. 3, Brooksville, Ind.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for more than forty years.

Delhi, Sept. 5.—The Board of Supervisors held an extra meeting on Friday evening for the purpose of considering the resignation of Vincent Elwood of Hancock as a member of the Equalization committee. The resignation was accepted and Monroe Williams of Hancock was appointed in his place. Several bills in connection with the army motor trucks were audited.

Kiff Purchases Swope Property. Everett Kiff purchased on Thursday the desirable property on Main street owned and occupied for a number of years by the late Virginia Swope. An auction of the household goods was also held that day and selling articles continued until a late hour in the evening.

HONEYMOONERS IN HOBERT

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Davis in Village: Bride Was Former Hobart Nurse.

Hobart, Sept. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Davis of Brooklyn arrived in town Saturday and formally announced their marriage. The bride is well known in this village and vicinity as Miss Rose Mulholland, who formerly was a nurse and was for some time engaged in professional work here. They were married Thursday in Brooklyn by Rev. George H. Donkowitz, and left after the ceremony for a week's honeymoon, to be spent at Hobart and Oneonta before arriving here, and they will be guests for the coming week at Montgomery Homestead. The many friends of the bride in Hobart will extend hearty congratulations. The couple will make their home in Brooklyn.

Entertains on Seventh Birthday

Walter Montgomery, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery of this village, celebrated his seventh birthday anniversary last Saturday by inviting in a dozen of his little friends. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent at Montgomery Homestead and the children were given an auto ride. Master Walter was the recipient of many gifts from his friends.

Items of Interest

Prof. and Mrs. H. B. Allen returned Thursday evening, after spending the summer in Schenectady. Mrs. Wilbert is a guest of relatives in Hobart. Harold E. Odell, and Attorney A. L. O'Connor were business callers in Walton and Oneonta Thursday. Miss Louise Persons of Shattuck is a guest of Miss Laura Toulson. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark of Roxbury were recent guests of the latter's uncle, George Breun. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McMurphy left today for Worcester, Mass., where they will visit their son, Sherman Cattell. They will also visit friends in Springfield and Boston. Messrs. Laura and Irma Breun of Dakota were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Breun. The Messrs. Breun are cousins of Mr. Breun and were on their way to New York, where they are attending Columbia university. William, the 14-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Barlow of Hobart, swallowed Saturday some solution which contained tartar emetic and which had been used to drive ants away. Dr. West was called and later that afternoon announced the child out of danger. Katherine Wilkins, Martha Dibble and Everett Post were in Oneonta Thursday where they underwent operations for the removal of adenoids and enlarged tonsils. The patients returned that night and are making a good recovery. — Mr. and Mrs. Con-

Motion Picture News — "Riders of the Dawn" serves up enough action to please any spectator. There is no waiting for the action to begin. This previous incident, offered with a bang start and maintaining its activity to the conclusion, will make one sit up and take notice. The cast and settings are beyond criticism.

Moving Picture World — Generally the entertainment in "Riders of the Dawn" Benjamin B. Hampton has laid hold of the dominant mood of the gripping Zane Grey novel and stuck consistently to it throughout. A sterling cast, its riding and its back-grounds give dignity and character to "Riders of the Dawn."

AVIATOR SEASICK IN THE AIR

Italian Flyer Encounters Rough Air Conditions on Trip to Tokyo.

Tokyo.—Lieutenant Ferrarin, one of the two Italian aviators who flew from Rome to Tokyo, encountered such rough air conditions while crossing Korea that he became seasick. "In my entire flying experience," he said, "I had never before encountered such conditions. The machine pitched like a small boat in a heavy swell, and for the first time in my life I knew what it was to be seasick. The most exciting part of my trip occurred in Asia Minor," he added, "about 100 miles from Aleppo, where I was subjected to heavy machine gun fire by the Arab rebels."

THE CORN BORER.

The European corn borer, which a few years ago gained foothold in the United States to such an extent as to require that a quarantine should be placed on certain sections of New York, Massachusetts and New Jersey, is apparently extending the sphere of its activities. At any rate ten additional towns in Massachusetts have been placed under quarantine, and in New York, where previously some sections of Schoharie and Montgomery had been affected by the order, it has been extended to cover Broadbald in Fulton county and Glen in Montgomery.

The borer is an instance of a foreign insect pest which in its own original habitat did comparatively little damage, being kept down by natural enemies, but which becomes a source of grave danger in a new country, where there are as yet no such enemies. Originally confined in Europe to quite another group of plants, it took kindly to maize when that American grain was introduced in Europe. A few years ago, through the use of the stalks of corn and some other European plants for packing, it was brought to America, and before the enemy was recognized it gained a considerable footing in small sections of the states named. Gradually from these centers it has extended until there is now a danger, unless strenuous efforts are made, that it will eventually get beyond control and overrun the country, just as the Colorado potato beetle, originally confined to the sand-bur of that state, thrived mightily when it got a taste of the potato, which like the sand-bur is a member of the Solanum genus of plants.

One reason why every effort should be put forth to combat the corn borer is that it eventually attacks not merely corn, but broom corn, celery, green beans in the pod, beets with tops, spinach, rhubarb, oat and rye straw, and among flowers chrysanthemums, asters, cosmos, zinnia, hollyhock, gladiolus and dahlias. With a taste so varied and omnivorous the borer is a pest to be feared, and even at great expenditure of money, time and effort, combated.

Fortunately, though the borer has been located in the eastern part of Schoharie county, adjoining the Montgomery sector, it has not as yet reached Otsego. That it will not do so, all will hope who realize the extent of possible danger.

9 p. m.—Concert by Cooperstown Band.

Welcome Guests in Old Otsego.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Strong of Los Angeles, Cal., who arrived in Otsego county about two weeks ago, and for most of the time had been with Mrs. John S. Kidder at Schuyler lake, arrived in Oneonta Friday morning. The present are stopping with Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Ford. It had been Mr. Strong's custom to visit his old home in Laurens once in two years, but his absence has in the present instance been more prolonged, this being his first visit to the east since 1915. However, his numerous friends in Oneonta and throughout the county will hope that his present sojourn may be sufficiently prolonged to make up for his long absence, and they will also be glad to note that the years have touched him lightly and that he is apparently the same young fellow that he always was.

WHOLE DIST. SOLD FOR TAXES

JUSTICE KELLOGG RENDERS DECISION ON MARYLAND SCHOOL MUDDLE.

Many Thousands of Dollars Involved by Refusal of District No. 1 to Obey Order of State Department of Education and Commissioner Hartshorn. — D. & H. Tax Alone Over $1,700 for 1918 — And 1919 Yet to Be Paid.

A decision rendered Saturday by Supreme Court Justice A. L. Kellogg, sitting in chambers in this city, probably settles for good the protracted litigation which for the past two years has been going on between the taxpayers of School District No. 1 and 2 in the town of Maryland. Moreover, it holds that the consolidation of the two districts was legal, and that the sale for taxes of all the property of the former District No. 1 save that of the Delaware & Hudson, which secured an injunction and began the proceeding decided Saturday, was also legal. Under terms of this decision, the taxpayers of the former District No. 1 in order to retain ownership of their property must pay the amount of taxes for which their property was sold, along with the costs of sale, ten per cent interest from the date of sale. The amount involved is several thousands of dollars for 1918 alone, the one tax of the Delaware & Hudson company being about $1,700, and there still remains the tax for 1919 to be paid.

The case, which has been for two years in the courts, had its origin in an order issued in 1916, by Superintendent Burlingame of the Second Otsego district, dissolving District No. 1, which is located about three miles below Maryland village, and consolidating it with District No. 2, which is the High school district in that village. The officers of District No. 1 took an appeal from this decision to the State Education department. Commissioner Finley dismissed the appeal in December, 1916, but January 5, 1917, issued a modifying order to the effect that the order of Commissioner Burlingame should not be effective as regards the hiring of a teacher, raising a tax and operating a school in District No. 1 until July 31, 1917. The township school system went into effect at this time but was repealed by the next legislature, the repealing act specifying that districts should remain as of May 2, 1917.

The officers and taxpayers of District No. 1 disregarded the order of the superintendent and commissioner, saying that it was illegal and void, and the district has ever since continuously hired a teacher, conducted a school and levied a tax. Included among these taxpayers was the D. & H. company, which paid its tax in District No. 1, and along with all other taxpayers refused to pay the taxes levied and assessed on the same property by District No. 2. The 1918 taxes of District No. 2, in so far as they applied to the property embraced in the former District No. 1, were returned as unpaid by the collector and were assessed upon the rolls of the town. The town collector was unable to collect them, and he in turn returned them to the county treasurer, who proceeded to sell said property and did sell all except that of the D. & H. company for the collection of the said tax. The railroad company obtained a restraining order and injunction, commencing at the same time an action to test the legality of the consolidation of the districts and the right of the county treasurer to sell the property for collection of taxes.

The case, which is entitled "The Delaware & Hudson company and Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, plaintiff, against the county of Otsego, N. Y., and Burton G. Johnson, county treasurer of Otsego county, N. Y., and School District No. 2 of the Town of Maryland, Otsego county, N. Y., defendants," was submitted on stipulations and the filing of documentary proof, and was argued before the court on Saturday, the appearances being N. P. Willis for plaintiff, D. J. Kilkeny attorney for the county of Otsego and B. G. Johnson county treasurer, and J. S. Waterman, attorney for District No. 2, town of Maryland. The decision was in favor of the defendant and it is understood that no appeal will be taken.

In addition to the tax for 1918 involved in the proceeding, is also that for 1919, since the two schools have to this time been both conducted, and taxes for their maintenance have been assessed in both districts. The controversy has been long and vexatious, and the costs thereof, in the form of the second tax, the percentage and interest will be no inconsiderable burden to the taxpayers of former District No. 1.

Simmons-Campbell Wedding.

Floyd Simmons of this city and Miss Lelia Campbell of Port Dickinson were married Saturday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tucker of Bainbridge. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. F. Lesh, pastor of the Bainbridge Methodist Episcopal church, and Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, who are cousins of the bride, were witnesses. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Simmons departed on an auto trip to Oneonta and thence through the Catskills, and later they will visit at the home of the groom's father, Adolbert Simmons of Stamford. The groom is a machanic by occupation and for several years was an employee of the D. & H. company in this city. Both are respected young people and will have the best wishes of many friends.

ASK INCREASED RATES

Southern New York Company Petitioners for Five Cents a Mile on Interurban Traffic—Also to Discontinue Mileage Books.

Albany, Sept. 5. — The Southern New York Power and Railway corporation, operating between Mohawk and Oneonta, asked the Public Service commission, second district, on Friday for permission to increase its interurban passenger rate from 4 to 5 cents a mile, ticket and cash fares, and to discontinue the sale of mileage books. The company's petition states that its line is paralleled by improved state highways and that there is competition from auto buses and freight truck lines, and grades render operation of cars expensive. The company alleges, in support of its application, increases in the cost of materials and labor, stating that subsequent to June 1 there had been wage increases approximating 22 per cent in the operating department and 12 per cent in other departments. Arbitration of the strike in July, it states, added $25,000 to the pay roll.

The company alleges that it is not receiving a proper return on the value of the property used in the public service and submits a financial statement showing that its income in 1919, after payment of operating expenses, taxes and interest on bonded and other interest-bearing debt, was $28,249; and for the year ending July 31, 1920, there was a deficit of $14,936. For the latter period the revenues of the company were $354,625. On the other side the operating expenses were $206,683, taxes, $20,027, and deductions for bond and other interest payments $72,791. The company says there are no franchise restrictions, in all places in which the interurban fares apply.

DEATH OF MRS. E. A. SCRAMBLING

Native and Practically Life Long Resident of This City Dies at Oneonta. On Saturday morning at the home of James Wilson Carpenter in Oneonta occurred the death of Mrs. Egbert A. Scrambling. Although she had been out of health for three years, death at this time came somewhat unexpectedly.

Mrs. Scrambling was born 68 years ago this month in Oneonta, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Jenks. Practically her whole life was lived in Oneonta; certainly her keenest interests centered here. In the early seventies she was married to Charles Sanford Carpenter of Oneonta. Some eight years after Mr. Carpenter's death she became the wife of Egbert A. Scrambling, long a well known resident of this city. It is a coincidence that within a few hours of four weeks Mrs. Scrambling's death followed that of a step-daughter by this marriage, Mrs. Howard Lewis Day. Since Mr. Scrambling's death ten years ago Mrs. Scrambling had lived much away from Oneonta. She is survived by her one near of kin, her daughter, Miss Beulah James Carpenter.

Throughout her life, Mrs. Scrambling has been much admired for much loveliness of person and personality. She was possessed of decided strength of character, coupled with sweetness and gentleness of nature. She had to a marked degree tact and discretion, quick sympathies and an eager spirit for service. Hers was essentially the retiring, home-centering mind, possessing the while, upon demand, excellent powers of organization and direction.

The funeral services will be held this Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home of Howard L. Day, 14 Church street.

A VETERAN OF THE REBELLION

Orlando Dawyer Dies Sunday Morning After Long Illness.

Orlando Dawyer Dies Sunday Morning After Long Illness. Orlando Dawyer, a veteran of the Civil war and for many years a resident of Oneonta and of Milford township, died at three o'clock Sunday morning at his room in the Hathaway house on Broad street. He had been in poor health for the past year, and of late he had steadily declined.

The funeral will be held at the McDermott undertaking rooms on Tuesday, Sept. 7, at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Ward, pastor of the Milford Center Baptist church, will officiate, and interment will be in the Milford Center cemetery beside his late wife. Mr. Dawyer was born September 30, 1841, and was a son of Phileas and Cornelia (Taylor) Dawyer. In early life the family moved to Milford Center, and in 1865 he enlisted in Company D of the 193rd New York Volunteers. After the war he was married to Miss Emma Rowland, moved to Nebraska, where he followed the occupation of a farmer. Later they returned to Otsego county, locating in this city, the home being at the corner of Pine and Center streets. A few years ago he removed to Milford Center and, after the death of his wife in August of last year, he removed to Schenectady. Last spring he returned to Oneonta and ever since had been located at the Hathaway house. He was a respected man and many among the veterans and older citizens will regret his demise.

His nearest surviving relative is a sister, Mrs. Margaret Shafer of Schenectady. He leaves also several nieces and nephews.

Five Marital Knots Untied.

Among the cases heard by Justice A. L. Kellogg in chambers at the special term of supreme court in Oneonta Saturday were five actions for divorce, as follows: Grace E. Stocker vs. Lee O. Stocker, F. C. Huntington esp. for plaintiff; Milton J. Cole vs. Grace M. Cole, same attorney; Grace L. House vs. Harry J. House, J. J. Brant vs. Bessie M. Brant, and Dwight Little vs. Fannie M. Little, J. J. Kirby of Norwich, attorney for plaintiff in each instance. There were no appearances for the defendants and the decrees asked for were granted.

At a conference of teachers of the Third Supervisory district of Otsego county, to be held next Friday at Cooperstown, Prof. Fittelle of the Normal faculty will discuss "Standardizing Tests" before the grade and High school sections, and at the general session will present "Tests of Intelligence." At the latter session Dr. Dann, superintendent of Oneonta schools, will speak on "Aims in Teaching." Miss Nina V. Short of Oneonta, secretary of the County Tuberculosis committee, will speak on "Health Work."

Large Attendance at High School.

Saturday morning, there were about 75 students to register for the Senior and Junior classes at the Oneonta High school for the coming year. The total number registered in the school now is 225. There are a number who were unable to register during the three days of last week and it is thought that there will be more than 400 when all have registered. Tuesday will be the first day of school. There will be classes only in the morning and all who have not registered will do so that afternoon.

TWO MORE CARS RECOVERED

POLICE LOCATE AUTOS OWNED IN BINGHAMTON AND ALBANY.

Brings Total of Machines Gang Is Said to Have Taken Up to 14 — Thayer Unable to Furnish $3,000 Bail and Still Is Held — Herkimer Sheriff's Part in Road-Work.

The local police, continuing their investigation into the activities of the gang of auto thieves apprehended last week, succeeded in locating over the week end two more of the motor cars they are alleged to have stolen, thus bringing the total number of autos recovered up to 14.

On Saturday, a 1915 Buick car owned by Binghamton parties was recovered in this city. According to the police, Earl Thayer, Edwin Porter and William McKinney, three of the men in custody, stole it and later Thayer and Porter went to Toledo, Ohio, with it. It is now held awaiting identification of the owner, who lives in Binghamton.

Vincent Archibson of Albany came to Oneonta yesterday and identified as his property a Chevrolet touring car, which was stolen last May in Saranac Lake, by a member of the gang, said to be Thayer. Thayer returned here with it and sold it to a local man, and it changed hands again before it was finally located by the police.

Officer Simmons was in Herkimer Saturday, where he visited Porter in the Herkimer county jail and obtained a statement from him, in which Porter admits his part in the operations of the gang. Porter and Lyman Hotaling, of Sidney, are held in Herkimer county for the action of the next grand jury, they having thus far been unable to obtain the $5,000 bail required to release them.

Thayer, who is held at the local jail, was given a hearing in city court Friday before Judge F. C. Huntington, waived examination and was held for the grand jury on a grand larceny charge. Bail was fixed at $5,000, which he was unable to furnish, and he is still confined. Louis Yager is the only member of the gang who was released on less than $5,000 bonds, he gaining his freedom after posting $1,000, owing to the fact that he is held on a less serious charge, that of receiving stolen property.

The police are still searching for additional cars believed to have been stolen and later disposed of by the gang composed of Thayer, Porter, McKinney, Yager and Hotaling, and believe that before the week is ended they will have located several more of the cars.

It is learned that the Herkimer county authorities played an important part in apprehending the gang of thieves the local police department failed. Sheriff Cross and his son, Deputy Sheriff Ralph Cross, were notified of the car robberies in the vicinity of Herkimer and after conducting an investigation ascertained that the men they wanted were in the vicinity of Oneonta. The local police had meanwhile got on the same scent and the two organizations cooperated in bringing the men to justice. Another man who is also deserving of credit is Deputy Sheriff Frank Senaman of this city, who went north with Officer O'Dell and got on the trail of McKinney, and also assisted in other ways. The whole round-up is a fine piece of work and is a master stroke by the authorities who brought it about.

Still Seek Man for Petit Larceny.

When local officers went to Coopers-town Saturday morning with a warrant for the arrest of E. S. Silverman of Utica, on a charge of petit larceny, they found that the man had been released, owing to mistaken identity. Silverman was placed under arrest at Oakville Thursday, where it was alleged he had been doing petty thieving. After the authorities got their man, it is said, he did not prove to be the right man, and he therefore was released. The authorities will continue their search for the man said to have done the thieving and who is reported to have operated in Oneonta several weeks ago, claiming to be an agent.

Only One Recruit from Oneonta.

Young men of Oneonta and vicinity apparently are not impressed by the opportunity for "training and travel" that the U. S. army offers, for during the past week the special recruiting party, with a motor truck of war trophies, stationed at the corner of Main street and Ford avenue, secured only one man. He was Orlando D. Merrihue of this city, who joined the infantry for three years, and left on Saturday for San Diego, Cal. The recruiting party returned Sunday to their headquarters in Albany.

SIDNEY AVIATOR COMING

Joseph S. Bennett Plans to Spread a Few Days in Oneonta This Week — Will Carry Passengers.

Oneonta, which has been scanning the skies in vain all summer long for the sight of a birdman, seems at last to be permitted to have a chance to take to the air. The following letter was received by The Star last evening from Joseph S. Bennett, the Sidney aviator:

Editor Star:
—I am planning to visit Oneonta this week with a passenger carrying airplane and stay for two or three days. I have looked over a field across the road from the Country club grounds, found it suitable as a landing field, and have written the owner. If permission can be had to use the field, I can be looked for in Oneonta early this week.

"Of course, my object in coming to Oneonta will be to carry passengers, give exhibitions, and do aerial advertising."

Yours,
"Joseph S. Bennett."

Aviator Bennett has been visiting many towns in this vicinity during the summer, and has taken up scores of passengers, folks of the vicinity being delighted to have a chance to make flights. He is regarded as an expert aviator and the uninitiated marvel at the way he handles his machine.

On one previous occasion this summer Oneonta was to have been visited by a birdman, but he failed to appear, and it is to be hoped that Mr. Bennett will put in his appearance in a day or two. It is safe to say that he need not stop for fear of not finding a suitable landing place, as there are many fields on the outskirts of the city that would serve his purpose.

"THE RAINBOW GIRL"

Original Company Comes to Oneonta Theatre Friday Evening.

"The Rainbow Girl," Gleason and Block's exquisite comedy, comes to the Oneonta Theatre one night, Friday, September 10th.

No, in several years have Gleason and Block been able to bring forward an entertainment which is so perfect in so many details. The book is founded on a comedy by Jerome K. Jerome, with lyrics by Renold Wolf and music by Louis A. Hirsch. Mr. Hirsch also wrote the music for "Going Up" and the "Follies." The four interior sets are by Urban. William O'Neil and Robert Marks directed the dramatic action and the ensemble. "The Rainbow Girl" relates the adventures of a young English girl (Katherine Shaw), who marries a member of the English nobility. Her troubles begin when introduced into her husband's home. She finds that her entire family, including aunt, uncle and cousins, are performing the menial services of the noble household. The humor of the situation is embodied by Sam Sidman and Frank Farrington, assisted by twenty principals and more than a score of chorus girls. The original production including the chorus and majority of original cast as seen at the New York Casino Theatre for one solid year, a company of 40 people, will positively appear here.

Harold Taylor Leaving Oneonta.

Harold T. Taylor, who for the past year has been supervisor of physical training at the Oneonta High school, has placed his resignation in the hands of Superintendent Dann, who has declined to accept. It is not known whether Mr. Taylor will report for the opening of school this week, but his friends say that he will not, as he has accepted work elsewhere. Mr. Taylor had charge of the children's playgrounds during the summer and was generally liked by the school students. Dr. Dann has not yet taken any action relating to naming a successor.

New "No Parking" Signs Arrive.

The local police department received on Saturday a score of new traffic signs that will shortly be put in place along Main and Dietz streets. The signs announce in bold red letters that 30 minutes is the time limit for parking cars along the streets where they are standing. Under an ordinance recently adopted by the city council, no car can be left standing more than half an hour at a time on Main street, between Ford avenue and Grove street, or on the easterly side of Dietz street as far north as Reynolds avenue.

WEIDMANS GIVE CLAMBAKE.

Manager of Oneonta Cubs Presented With Silver Loving Cup by Players. Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Weidman, whose hospitality is well known, entertained about 50 of their friends yesterday at their camp on Goodyear Lake. The event was in the form of an "au revoir" for the 1920 baseball season, which ends here today with a double header, and the merry company included the members of Weidman's ball club.

In the early afternoon, there was a "real" clambake under the direction of Mrs. Weidman and Mr. and Mrs. George Sheerer, and all who were fortunate enough to participate in the good things say they were great—and then some. The remainder of the afternoon was pleasantly spent along the shores of the lake and all present were enthusiastic over the hospitality of the Weidmans.

During the afternoon, there was an informal meeting of the guests, at which Manager Weidman was presented with a silver loving cup by the members of his team, as a token of regard. Mr. Weidman was also the recipient of a gold watch, a gold fountain pen, and other testimonials. Several of the guests, including Joe Langdon, the Cubs' new umpire, Dr. F. H. Marx, and Fred Weeks, of the Cubs, spoke briefly, referring to the good feeling existing in the local baseball organization.

One of the most entertaining features of the afternoon occurred when Secretary Damaschke announced himself and proceeded to present the different players of the team with gifts, useful and otherwise. One outfielder got a fly-swatter for use in "swatting the flies" while an infielder was presented with an alarm clock to use when a man is stealing home.

SOUTHERN PORT IS BLOCKADED

MIAMI IS IN THE LIMELIGHT

United States Warships Blockade a United States Port in Time of Peace—Geographic Society Official Tells About Place.

By JOHN OLIVER LA GORCE,
Vice-Director National Geographic Society.

Miami, Fla.—Probably for the first time since the stirring days of the Civil war we find a southern port blockaded by United States warships. Happily, however, it is no crisis brought about by an uncompromising demand for the integrity of state rights, but to prevent a cable ship entering the port of Miami, the most southerly city on the Florida mainland and the third largest in the state, from the standpoint of population.

Nestling beside the beautiful waters of Biscayne bay and separated from the Atlantic only by the peninsula of Miami beach, the city has rapidly come into its own, due to the strategic geographic location it occupies on the South Atlantic coast, and it gives promise to rival Jacksonville as a port of call. When one realizes that one-third of all the grapefruit in the United States comes from the county in which Miami is situated and that one-fifth of all the animal life in America north of Panama is to be found in the waters of the Gulf stream which have the golden strand of Miami beach in its front yard, and with the great potential agricultural wealth of the Everglades at its back door, small wonder that Miami has grown, as shown by the last census report, 440 per cent.

Rivale the Riviera.
Blessed with a year-round climate that rivals the Riviera, with ever-blowing trade winds that temper the semi-tropical sun, Miami bids fair to take rank with anything of its size in the United States for development along highly profitable and thoroughly businesslike lines.

It is not surprising that a telegraph company desires to bring the Barbados cables into Miami instead of Key West, a hundred odd miles south of this point; but there is some diplomatic hitch about England's control of cables which has caused this practically unheard of situation of United States war vessels blockading a United States port in the time of peace.

Three years ago the money on deposit in the banking institutions of Miami amounted to something like $4,000,000, in the summer of 1919 to $12,000,000, in March, 1920, to $17,000,000, and today the amount is up to $20,000,000. Moreover, in permanent population it has grown in ten years from 5,471 to 29,549. During the winter months there are nearly as many "cops" on its well-paved streets as there are in the national capital, ten times its size.

One of the most important developments of Miami beach is the inauguration and completion of the Miami aquarium and biological laboratory, located at the beach terminus of the wonderful 100-foot causeway stretching three miles in length which spans Biscayne bay, connecting the city with the ocean beaches. As the scientists generally agree that all land animals came originally out of the sea, the study of the myriad forms of life in the tropical seas will, it is believed, develop links between the sea and land animals that will add much to the world's knowledge of this important question. Since the question of food has been accentuated as an aftermath of the world war, the eyes of economists have turned to the warm seas to develop the possibilities of its innumerable fish life.

New Species of Tuna.

Just as the shoemaker's child is proverbially without footwear, so it was that there was no aquarium or biological station on the entire Atlantic coast south of Philadelphia, and, consequently, no extensive and adequately equipped and situated institution to which the ichthyologists of the country could make pilgrimages and study at first hand the wonders of the fauna of the Gulf stream. Heretofore these specialists in zoology traveled to the aquarium at Naples, Italy, and to other European institutions, simply because there was nowhere in the warm seas surrounding the southern part of our own continent a place where they have the means at hand to pursue their highly important work.

Only a month or two ago, an entirely new species of tuna, one of the most valuable food fishes in the world, was located and described by the director of the Miami aquarium, and if these great fishes of the horse-mackerel family can be developed in a commercial way it will have an interesting bearing on the problem of lowering the high cost of living.

Father for Thirty-fifth Time.

El Centro, Cal.—Frank Valle, sixty years old, a native of Mexico, became a father for the thirty-fifth time when his second wife, whom he married in 1901, gave birth to her seventeenth child, an 11-pound boy.

Sixteen of Valle's children are living.

Possible Economy.

One day when James was taking a walk with his grandmother they met a man who had his glasses so far down that he could easily look over them. After they had passed him James said: "Grandmother, why does he look over his glasses; is he afraid of wearing them out?"

Wetherill of Rayenta, Navajo Indian reservation, who is to handle the affairs of the association in Arizona. Mrs. Wetherill has known the Roosevelt family for years. She has become intimately acquainted with Indian life and customs and is writing a history of the Navajos and their legends.

MOTHER OF TWENTY-SIX

Woman Is Comparatively Young, Says Health Inspector.

Abundia Rivera, forty-two years old, mother of 26 children, only one of whom is living, was revealed at Los Angeles as one of the most unfortunate mothers in the history of the country.

According to the report filed by Dr. Margaret Barr of the Los Angeles county health department, 25 of this mother's children have died before they reached the age of one year. The last child is several years old and is said to be healthy.

Discovery of the remarkable case was made by Dr. Barr in her work in the interest of better babies, which is being directed by Dr. J. L. Pomeroy, head of the department.

Mrs. Rivera was found living near San Gabriel with her third husband, who is only twenty-two years old.

POCKET GLASS BETRAYS SEX

Farmhand in Kansas Admits "He" Is Girl When Caught Looking in Mirror.

Independence, Kan.—Female use of a pocket mirror proved the undoing of "Glen Rose," who for several weeks masqueraded successfully as a harvest hand. "Glen" then admitted she was a girl. She stated that she had been teaching school in Oklahoma and was 19 years old. The prospect of making big money in the harvest fields, she asserted, prompted her to sidestep on the escapade. She cut her hair and was attired in overalls. For some time she worked on a farm along with male harvest hands.

Proper Pride Necessary.

Pride, like laudanum and other poisonous medicines, is beneficial in small, though injurious in large quantities. No man who is not pleased with himself, even in a personal sense, can please others.—Frederick Saunders.

Philippine Forests.

The forests of the Philippines afford the greatest variety of wood in the world. Some of the hard woods are unexcelled for beauty and durability and a big trade is developing in exporting the timber to the United States.

Awful Possibility.

Her mother insisting that she should finish what she had on her plate, little Marjory exclaimed, "If you make me eat another bite, mamma, I shall be humped back in my stomach like krapapa."—Boston Transcript.

SEEK COMMISSION'S APPROVAL FORMER D. & H. CONDUCTOR.

Utter & Delaware Railroad Ask Commission to Charge Five Cents a Mile

On Thursday, September 16, the Public Service commission, second order of the death of Charles T. Saxton, will conduct a hearing, at its offices at 51 State street, in Albany, on the application of the Utter & Delaware railroad company for an order from the commission fixing the maximum passenger fare on its railroads at five cents a mile and that the minimum single fare may be 10 cents instead of five cents as at present.

Notice of this hearing has been sent to the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants association of this city, and, doubtless, to other commercial organizations along the road. No action has been taken as yet by these organizations but it is probable that the proposition will be considered and possibly that both of the local commercial bodies will be represented at the hearing.

The company is now in a position where it is charging, one rate for local and one for interstate traffic, a condition which never should exist. Another reason why Kippochie is a favorite is because its quality never varies.

Empty truck from New York next week. Special price for return load. M. Johnson.

Notice to Public.
Notice is hereby given that after this date pay no bills contracted by anyone other than myself.
Warner Durston.
Dated, Oneonta Sept. 5, 1920.

---But the Sandwich hits the spot!

You know how it is, fellows; pop-corn and apples and all-day snacks are good enough in their way, but when it comes to a downright good lunch—for that after-school hunger, there's nothing quite hits the spot like a boxful of good sandwiches!

Try these next time hunger hits you.

Honey and Nut Sandwich:
sauce and butter the desired number of slices of bread, then spread lightly with honey, taking care not to spread it quite to the edge. Sprinkle the bottom slice with chopped nuts (black walnuts, pecans or hickory nuts.) The two slices should then be pressed together. A garnish of a half nut may then be used as decoration on top by dipping the under side of the nut in honey and sticking it on to the sandwich.

Marmalade and Cream Cheese Sandwiches:
Mash one cream cheese and add two tablespoons of marmalade and one tablespoon of finely chopped walnuts. Mix thoroughly and spread between buttered slices of whole wheat, graham or white bread.

For perfect sandwiches, start with—

"Nu" Bread
—the loaf so sweet and rich, any regular fellow would rather eat it than cake, any day.

To Men and Women of Keen Ambition

The keenest minds engaged in the Engine Industry foresee the day when there will be no more Gasoline Engines and when nothing but Oil Burning Engines will be manufactured, and that day is not far distant.

THE JONES OIL ENGINE CORPORATION has been manufacturing an Oil Burning Engine for some time and it was their belief — and conditions in the Engine Industry warrant that belief — that in going into this business they were engaging in an industry producing a commodity as staple as the automobile, and where they will have an opportunity to build a business of considerable magnitude.

They outgrew their small factory on Walton street, Syracuse, N. Y., in a very short time, and in order to take care of the business which was offered from all over the United States and from many foreign lands, they found it necessary to build an up-to-date plant where large production would be available, and this new plant, located on Free street, is now rapidly nearing completion.

The directors of this corporation have not had among themselves all of the capital that was necessary, and the Securities of the JONES OIL ENGINE CORPORATION were therefore offered to the general public upon terms which are extremely advantageous.

Syracuse is going to have an Engine Factory—the most modern that science and adequate finance can provide—and it will be only a matter of a few short weeks before the daily output of this new factory will be larger than the weekly production of the old one—and every one of these engines will be built and sold at a splendid profit.

We believe that the Securities of this Corporation offer to you individually one of the most attractive investment opportunities which has ever been placed before you.

The woods are full of men, and women too, who regret it keenly because they passed up an investment, which proved to be highly profitable later on, in an off-hand way.

There is not even one particle of good common sense in passing up any investment opportunity without at least making a rigid investigation, which is all we ask you to do in justice to yourself.

There is a coupon in the corner which will bring you an answer to every one of your questions. Write your name and address on it, mail it to us and we will be pleased to submit to you the many advantageous conditions surrounding this business, and when you have all information in hand you will be able to determine as to whether or not you care to join us—but you cannot possibly make a fair decision without having full facts before you.

There will be another advance in the price of our Stock on or before September 15th, which is an additional reason why you should send us the coupon IMMEDIATELY.
